ASIA CAPITAL REINSURANCE GROUP NAMED 'INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE YEAR' FOR INVESTMENT EXCELLENCE

Singapore, August 21, 2012 – Asia Capital Reinsurance Group Pte. Ltd. (ACR or the Company) has been named 'Insurance Company of the Year' by investment publisher, The Asset, for ACR's achievements in investment management. The Hong Kong-based publisher's annual Triple A Investment Awards recognises companies that have demonstrated the most initiative and progress in building a sound investing model and operational framework to generate consistent returns despite difficult markets. ACR was recognised under the Investors of the Year category.

Commenting on the honour, Mr Don Guo, ACR's Chief Investment Officer, said, "ACR maintains a rigorous and disciplined investment approach to protect and grow our investment assets. We operate within a clearly defined investment risk management framework that focuses on the two main investment principles of Asset Liabilities Management and downside risk protection. The global macro environment and financial markets have been challenging and volatile in recent years, and against this backdrop, we are deeply honoured and encouraged to be conferred 'Insurance Company of the Year', an industry recognition of our investment platform and consistent investment track record."

Institutions, issuers and investors constitute the bulk of The Asset's readership. Their views and comments were also given weightage in the judging process. The period covered by the Triple A Investment Awards 2012 is from July 2011 to June 2012.

This is ACR's second win at the Triple A Investment Awards, noted as one of the industry's most prestigious – the Company was named “The Most Innovative Deal – Equity” in 2006, the year of ACR's inception.
